

A Level Student Visits:

Aphra Behn's The Rover and Mary Shelley's *Frankenstein

At Chawton House Library we are able to place the texts of the The Rover and Frankenstein in context both historically and culturally.

A study visit includes a tour of the house in which life for the entire household at the time of the text's writing can be explored.

The tour of the house is followed by a visit to the Lower Reading Room where an exhibition will be presented of some of the collection's holdings relevant to the text, its author and subsequent critical acceptance.
