

Chawton House Library

Saturday 11th September 2010

10.30am - 4.00pm

Visit the Elizabethan manor house that once belonged to Jane Austen's brother in the village of Chawton in Hampshire.

See the historic rooms including the Great Hall, the Oak Room and the Library with its remarkable collection of books written by early English women writers. Follow in Austen's footsteps along the Lime Walk via the Ha Ha to the Wilderness, and wander through the Walled Kitchen Garden

See the Shire horses, dance with the Hampshire Regency Dancers and relax over homemade light lunches, in the secluded Courtyard.

There will be activities for children, and you will be able to view the wonderful sculptures set in the gardens by renowned sculptor, Jon Edgar.
